AMENDED IN SENATE MARCH 28, 2012 AMENDED IN SENATE MARCH 14, 2012

SENATE BILL

No. 952

Introduced by Senator Alquist

January 5, 2012

An act to add and repeal Section 89517.5 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 952, as amended, Alquist. California State University: compensation.

Existing law establishes the California State University, under the administration of the Trustees of the California State University, as one of the segments of public postsecondary education in the state.

This bill would prohibit, on or after July 1, 2012, and until July 1, 2018, the Trustees of the California State University from entering into, or renewing, a contract that provides for a compensation increase for any administrator, as defined, president of a California State University campus of more than 10% using General Fund moneys in the fiscal year during which the contract is executed, relative to the immediately past contract for that same position.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

Vote: $\frac{2}{3}$. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

SB 952 -2-

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89517.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

- 89517.5. (a) On or after July 1, 2012, the Trustees of the California State University shall not enter into, or renew, a contract that provides for a compensation increase for any-administrator president of a California State University campus of more than 10 percent using General Fund moneys in the fiscal year during which the contract is executed, relative to the immediately past contract for that same position.
- (b) As used in this section, "administrator" includes, but is not limited to, the Chancellor of the California State University, a vice chancellor of the university, an executive vice chancellor of the university, the general counsel of the university, the trustees' secretary, and the president of an individual campus.

15 (c)

- (b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2018, and, as of January 1, 2019, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before January 1, 2019, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to respond to and alleviate the effects of the state's current fiscal crisis and the resulting additional budget cuts and tuition increases for the California State University, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.
